

Weekly Report

MARCH 7-14,
2013

South Sudan
Peder Soeraas

1 Atmosphere takes a turn with mounting distrust in
IOs

Atmosphere takes a turn with mounting distrust in International Organizations

- The discovery of a UN truck carrying weapons, allegedly including landmines, brought on waves of distrust in the organization. Other complaints include ethnic favouritism by the UN, something that has sparked protests in Juba.
- UN movement is being restricted by government troops due to fears that the organization is arming the opposition. Humanitarian aid has been severely delayed by this development.
- Source: Washington Post

http://www.washingtonpost.com/national/south-sudan-protest-against-un-after-weapons-found/2014/03/10/33d1fa84-a866-11e3-8a7b-c1c684e2671f_story.html